

Profile

A highly self-driven designer,

I am able to think critically and contribute effective design solutions and execute them with great technical skill.

Extremely detail-oriented,

I concentrate on good design aesthetics and theory to create well-rounded and cohesive design materials.

Friendly and versatile,

I am eager to learn and adapt to new projects and art mediums.

Technical Skills

InDesign

Photoshop

Illustrator

Microsoft Office

HTML & CSS

Specialty Skills

Hand Lettering

Typeface Design

Screenprinting

Interactive Design

Illustration

Papercraft

Experience

Opus Agency

Senior Designer | January 2014 - Present

Functioned as the lead designer on several large-scale events with 200+ individual pieces of design collateral. Developed and elevated creative concepts into total customer event experiences. Occasionally directed designers and contractors assisting on production of collateral.

Opus Agency

Designer | December 2014 - January 2017

Work independently and collaboratively on concept development and production of print and web collateral for a variety of clients, including several Fortune-500 companies.

TwoTwinsPins

Etsy Entrepreneur | February 2014 - Present

Partnering with my twin sister, we produce designs and illustrations based on popular culture and sell them as pins, magnets and sticker sets on etsy.

The Vanguard, Portland State University

Graphic Designer | June 2014 - August 2014

Produced page layout for the articles and images on the Vanguard's award winning weekly newspaper. Took on an art director's role for the special 2014 Fall Orientation Guide edition.

Co-Creative

Production and Web Designer - March 2014-June 2014

Created and developed marketing and design materials for Portland State University support departments, programs and organizations.

Portland Community College, Marketing Department

Graphic Design Intern | June 2011 - September 2012

Designed materials for both internal and external marketing projects. Worked as a key designer in an extensive design project that involved working with a team and building strong communication skills with clients.

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Graphic Design

Portland State University | Graduated 2014